Just southeast of the town is the Lamar junction on Kentucky Route 18. Lamar was the site of the public hanging of Sam Dale (of "Death on the Water") by the state on July 24, 1843. "Lamar" is named for James T. Lamar, the first US commissioner of Indian Affairs. Category:Unincorporated communities in Madison County, Kentucky Category:Unincorporated communities in KentuckyField of the Invention The present invention relates to an information processing apparatus, a method for controlling the same, and a non-transitory recording medium. Description of the Related Art So far, mobile terminals provided with an imaging function, such as smartphones or tablet terminals, have been widespread. Such a mobile terminal displays an object captured by a camera as an image. An end user selects a certain object image from among a plurality of captured object images displayed on a display of the mobile terminal. With the imaging function, the mobile terminal typically stores a captured object image in a storage medium in addition to the object image that has been selected by the end user. In the past, the mobile terminal has typically stored the selected object image in the storage medium together with an audio file that allows the end user to listen to an audio file while viewing the object image. However, in the past, if the audio file is selected together with the object image that has been selected by the end user, the audio file selected together with the object image that has been selected by the end user has been stored in the storage medium. Therefore, if the user selects the audio file together with the object image while viewing the object image in the display, the user is allowed to listen to the audio file while viewing the object image. As a result, the object image selected by the end user is able to be listened to without causing any problem even if the user selects the audio file together with the object image that has been selected by the end user. However, with the past technique, the audio file is stored together with the object image, and hence only one audio 3e33713323
